

My one and only

Kim Walker-Smith

You my one and only
You came and overwhelmed me
Love so pure and holy, love

With me you never have to hide
Because I'm always by your side
For you I live my life to give
This gift of love is ours to live

You my one and only
You came and overwhelmed me
Love so pure and holy, love

With me you never have to hide
Because I'm always by your side
For you I live my life to give
This gift of love is ours to live

You my one and only love
You my one and only love
You my one and only love
You my one and only love

Truth that always holds me
My love, I'll never let you go
Your grace that's ever beside me
My love, I'll always hold you close

You my one and only love
You my one and only love
You my one and only love
You my one and only love
True love
You my one and only love
You my one and only love
You my one and only love
You my one and only love
You my one and only love
