

Love (Send Him Back to Me)

Kim Wilde

You placed your bet while you were laughing in my face
And you let another woman take my place
No you wouldn't listen, wouldn't hear
I tried to change your mind
I never knew love was so conceited, so unkind

I was always one step ahead of you
Deep in my heart I always knew
Now admit it, you're gonna lose this fight
I'm not waiting any longer
Get him back to me tonight

Love send him back to me
Now that you've set him free
You better admit defeat
Love send him back to me

You broke her heart while you gambled with their souls
Now she's just another sad adventure you'll forget
But he didn't love her
Still you tried to satisfy your goal
I never knew love was so deceiving, so cold

I was always one step ahead of you
Deep in my heart I always knew
Now admit it, you're gonna lose this fight
I'm not waiting any longer
Get him back to me tonight
