

Heart Like Mine

Kimberly Caldwell

Maybe it's the way you tried to get away with it
Maybe it's the way you're running from me but you can't hide
'Cause you and I, we know that you are not innocent
And there's a lot of guilty waiting for you in these eyes

So before you tell me that I'm better off without you baby
Let me shed some light

It's not alright, you took what's mine
I want it back as fast as you packed up and left my life
It's not ok treating me this way
I'd rather let you break my heart and live with your mistakes
'Cause you'll never find another heart like mine to break

So how's it feel knowing the skies are probably coming in Knowing you the way that I do you'd probably smile
That part still looks worse than being over it
Just knowing there's a part of you that wants me to suffer inside

So before you tell me that I'm better off without you baby
Let me shed some light

It's not alright, you took what's mine
I want it back as fast as you packed up and left my life
It's not ok treating me this way
I'd rather let you break my heart and live with your mistakes
'Cause you'll never find another heart like mine to break

I'm better off, I'm moving on, what you did to me was wrong
Just in case you can't face me to say so long
My middle finger's in the air to let you know that I don't care
'Cause you won't find a heart like mine anywhere
Another heart like mine, like mine

Never gonna find a heart like mine
Never gonna find a heart like mine
Never gonna find a heart like mine

It's not alright, you took what's mine
I want it back as fast as you packed up and left my life
It's not okay treating me this way
I'd rather let you break my heart and live with your mistakes
'Cause you'll never find another heart like mine to break
No, you'll never find another heart like mine to break
