

Cruel

Kimberly Cole

I messed up
I saw your halo under the table
I said it's good enough
As long as it's there I thought you would care

But those holes
They started showing before I know it
You went a-wall on me
In love with a stranger, you ain't the same

[Pre-Hook]

No need to pacify me
When you're out fucking every girl you please
And let me begging for you on my knees
You could've gave a little sympathy

[Hook]

Why you gotta, why you gotta be so cruel
If you cut your seat in my heart
You got me feeling like we're world apart
You sparked the lighter then you let me burn
I'm safe to say the drug you gotta be so cruel
You took me down like a setting sun
I take a bullet but you're holding the gun
At least save and bring me back to life
I'm safe to say the drug you gotta be so cruel

You're too numb to know what you choosing
Ain't that confusing
You're too dumb, dumb, dumb
To know what you're losing, you're so damn foolish

[Pre-Hook]

[Hook]

It's the way you used to love me, baby
Won't let me let you go
I wanna hit you but I can't make it come back
So tell me why you had to be so cruel

You cut your seat in my heart
You got me feeling like we're world apart
You sparked the lighter then you let me burn
I'm safe to say the drug you gotta be so cruel
You took me down like a setting sun
I take a bullet but you're holding the gun
At least save and bring me back to life
I'm safe to say the drug you gotta be so cruel

Why you gotta be so cruel
