

Everything

Kimberly Cole

And me
I could laugh forever, it's clear
That it's cutting deep
The cracks are open, beautifully broken
Free up and start from here

[Pre-Hook]

'Cause you and I, you and I, you and I know
We live to die for the highs, breathing in slow
Can't keep living in bruising skin
It's finally sinking in

[Hook]

You are everything
You are everything
You are everything
I'll never need
That I'll never need

Like a shadow following close behind me
In the city, moving to that emotion
Suddenly I'm going, my bruises are stronger
Freedom can start from here

[Pre-Hook]

[Hook]

I'll never need
That I'll never need
