

House of God

King Diamond

Once inside, everything would change before my eyes
No more decay
Glorious beauty had taken its place
But in horror... I watched as the wolf... began its skin to shed
I grabbed a silver crucifix expecting evil to be next

To the floor it fell, the crucifix, the wolf was no more a beast
Instead a lady only dreams can create Creeping deep into the heart I never had

"I'll love you forever... never leave"

It was love at first sight, in true love there is no wrong or right
I didn't care from where she came, just her name...
Angel
Then a kiss, soft and warm, my love, am I really not alone?

Nights of heavenly sin, in the House of God, I found... true love
Nights of heavenly sin, in the House of God, I found... true love

"I'll love you forever... never leave"

Solo: Andy

Plenty of Food and wine, so we laughed and we dined
We made love in the holiest of places all the passion it made us crazy

Nights of heavenly sin, in the House of God, I found... true love Angel... Angel... Angel... Angel where are you now?
