Into the Convent

King Diamond

Madeleine is running away from herself Afraid of shame, she's crying out for help To be clean again

Guitar solo ANDY

No one cared and no one ever will Her feelings were not shared, she wants to break the spell and she's going

Into the convent, a smile on her face Into the darkness to hide all her sins Wondering what could go wrong in this place

Father David: "Welcome Sister, I'm Your chaplain Down on Your knees and pray if You please in This convent I'm Your master Kiss My cross now dearest Sister In the Name of ... "

Guitar solo ANDY

Madeleine is running away from herself As father David said: "At comminion You must be undressed" Why did she go

Into the convent, a smile on her face Into the darkness to hide all her sins Wondering what could go wrong in this place

Guitar solo ANDY

Father David: "Come along Sister Madeleine Unfold Your wildest dreams, it's time to join and sing Let the feast begin"

That night she awoke to find "The Eye" On the stone cold floor Why, She never ever would knoe why But she put it on

Guitar solo PETE

Next day father David passed away At communion time Why, he never ever would know why But he looked at "The Eye"

The eye of the necklace is laking it's toll Inside the convent a soul will rejoice
