

Life After Death

King Diamond

Friday night

Four shadows heading for the dark
Four shadows heading for the past
Four shadows heading for the graves in the wooded maze
Four shadows looking for the place without a trace
Midnight and they're here, midnight
The old burial ground... is part of the estate
Hidden by the heavy trees... where Jean Le Noir he sleeps
The shadows move
They're here to feed the dead... the shadows move
'Cause there is life after death
Be patient and you will see
There is life after death
Be patient and you will see
Oh it must never end... never end... no
