

Shrine

King Diamond

The light is hurting my eyes
Even in the dark
I know I'm alive

I am burning for you,
Yeah you know its true.

Voices are calling in the night
Breaking the chain between our lights
I see your face I recognize
Darkness you are a holy shrine

The night, awakens the mind
This is where we all meet
The ones left behind

I am burning for you,
Yeah you know it's true.

Voices are calling in the night
Breaking the changing between our lights
I see your face I recognize
Darkness you are a holy shrine

Voices are calling in the night
Breaking the changing between our lights
I see your face I recognize
Darkness you are a holy shrine

I am burning for you,
Yeah you know it's true.

Voices are calling in the night
Breaking the changing sleep of night
I see your face I can't deny it
Darkness you are a holy shrine

The night, awakens the mind
This is where we all meet
The ones left behind

I am burning for you... I am burning for you...
