

Portrait in Black and Blue

King Krule

Spastic gyrations and abbreviated Bathing suits see I suit you Cause I could be you and I could show you true Till the cold runs through and through A portrait you in black and blue
I ain't painting this lie any more since it was all I had to ad
ore of you
And all I have to say is girl you keep running away.

Well time never gave me a chance
I shoulda been there oh you ladybird to my soul

To my world left a hole to despair See what I'm going Through you never even knew
That's nothing on my plate, trapped in a lizard state,
Minds at the gate, looking for an escape

I ain't painting this lie any more since it was all I had to ad
ore of you
And all I have to say is Giiirl I'm not painting this lie any m ore
And I'm dark and I'm in awe of you and all you had to say is,
It never hit me the same boy...
