

The Krockadile

King Krule

See my eyes can't see clear cause their coated in fear
Shot down and sent hemisphere and sent me here
To a boy[?]
My intentions are fraud
Or a fraud cause no more
And no less
Dont forget
There's storm in the west
Before its gets the best of me
Stress would be eased if you undress
But I think no less
Your soul and see how it grows cold
I need to go before I lose control
Of my emotions
I don't want you to see
Soul drown in the ocean
But my body is spread across the sea
You see these eyes
Can't see my eyes
See these lies
Girl can't see my eyes
You see these eyes
Girl can see my eyes
They open wind
Shocked and tied
Well i know your fake
Cause man im the same
Well burn at me at the stake
Are you content with this game
Are you content with what you make
And when there was days of dark
Where you witness when i was torn apart
By hands and my own heart
Let me tell girl those no room in this world to leave a mark
See it all just fine if you think its okay
When in actual fact you think its great
What can i say
Whats there to say when you brain
Bring the wet wipes
And star sign
Telling you that
Tonight will be just fine
