

Age Of Inquisition

King Leoric

Bounded to the written word they kill for god's sake
Use the cross just like a sword, another soul to take
No chance for resistance 'cos the christians live in fear
It's a poor existence and the monks of war are here.

Refrain:

Our minds held in cages,
We're shattered in unholy sacral decay,
It's lasting for ages,
And where's the messiah to lead us our way ?

It's not the sun that turns around the earth as they have thought
It's not a slice but it is round, astronomy is fought.
Witches as a reason for the weakness of the priest,
Still we feel the treason as they claim us as the beast.

Liar, liar, liar, liar in a robe !
