

Awaiting Armageddon

King Leoric

We are standing here and awaiting the new after two thousand years
Don't know where we go and fear in our views Let's hear the seers:

Don't be scared, don't fear what will come don't be sad, the old is gone
This is future, gone is the past, Tomorrow will forever last

We are men on a mission tonight waiting for a fight we carry our hearts in our hands
And we make a stand

We are standing here and Armageddon is near which means our death We lived our lives for fifty years until the last breath

Don't be scared, don't fear the last show, Don't be sad, the old must go,
This is heaven, gone is the earth, this is the time of rebirth
