

Cry In The Night

King Leoric

The dawning is near, the upcoming fear afraid of closing my eyes
My blood's running cold, the night - it is sold, and hope of salvation has died...
And then comes the sleep... - the pain is so deep!

Cry in the night, silence at day
born for the fight when the sun's away
Cry in the night - no way to run
Victim in sight hope for the sun...

They're raping my mind and come from behind I'm torn in the Abyss of rage
There's eternal pain, my cry is invain Abandoned in misery's cage...
They're stealing my sense, I cannot defend...

Cry in the night, silence at day
born for the fight when the sun's away
Cry in the night - no way to run
Victim in sight hope for the sun...
