

Guardians Of The King

King Leoric

We are the watcher of harm and of might
Nothing to fear is in sight
Bright are our eyes, true are our hearts
We are eternal hunters of lies

We will bring fire, thunder & pain like angels we fall from the sky
Taking the Kings under our wings
Forever the king s mustnt die
Like thunderforce and stormclouds from
Gates of Doom we come
In Lightnings we break through the dark
Blessed are the ones on the heels of the King
Their saviour, their Master of war

Will they run to the hills, will they hide in the seas...
Forever the Guardians will be...

Guardians of the King, Keeper of the ring, Holder of the final spell
Guardians of the King, Battlehymn they sing,
To keep our souls from Hell

We saw the battles, the wars and the plagues and the incarnation of hate End of all times in the fire of wrath
When God crushes the sky in his rage
Like thunderforce and stormclouds from
Gates of Doom we come
In Lightnings we break through the dark
Blessed are the ones on the heels of the King
Their saviour, their Master of war
