

Time steals your days

King Leoric

Another pretty morning, another sunny day
you're getting up, another game to start
First look in the mirror, pictures of the damned
An early sign, it isn't really you!

Your beard becomes so grey,
Your hair just fades away,
Slowly you rot in your decay...

Time, time, time, time
A friendly tick to take your life away!
Time, prime, rime, crime
Your wrist a witness that you cant decide...
Time steals your days!!!

Day by day is running, your days they count up fast,
Youth long gone and never been a child
Round by round your clock ticks, one two three and out!
A timeless matter you will never see...

Your beard becomes so grey,
Your hair just fades away,
Slowly you rot in your decay...

Time, time, time, time
A friendly tick to take your life away!
Time, prime, rime, crime
Your wrist a witness that you cant decide...
Time steals your days!!!
