

Warrior's Tune

King Leoric

We're the chosen ones, we're the hand of fate, our blood is just so pure
We live to die, we love to hate our enemies for sure

Bridge:

To save our kingdom is what we're fighting for No mercy for betrayers of the king !!!
We force his commandment and finally anchor
In union and brotherhood we sing...

Refrain:

We follow him in battle, through thunderstorm and hell
We're warriors of King Leoric, serving him so well.
We swore by our lives and the power of our steel We're warriors of King Leoric, our destiny is sealed

Now the time has come that steel will rule, hammered in fire hot as hell
Riding side by side in war so cruel, another glory story to tell
