I just left the bank nigga, deposit
Designer hela bands in my closet
What you got in the bank that's in my wallet
Your bitch a sperm bank, I told her swallow it
Tryina spend all that, where the mall at?
Catch me ballin on these bitches, where the ball at?
I told her I ain't into fingers so I'm thumbin
You think the money know us wait up where's comin?
I just left the bank with the crackers
Ballin with my g's like the packers
Before them throw a trays, we them stackers

Got change for nothin, I got a hunder
My mood just popped on, I'm bout to clear that My weed very loud, bet you can hear that
I just left the bank and got a lick

In and out the bank is a trend
All I know is winning win again
