

Your Worst Enemy

King Prawn

you're justified to be mystified you missed it you missed it trying to get away from the system that played you enslaved you are fascist mentality taking a righteous stand when you can't understand you saw the light now you're blind to you way as you're scheming for a better today it weighs you down like a millstone round you neck and you time is slipping away it's you that's heading down a dead end road it's you that's running nowhere to go when you look in the mirror what do you see?
staring at you is your worst enemy

it's true if life is the only illusion you'll never escape

you state your mind/but you don't want to know cos you're building a church of your own there's no way out now you're captured alone you're a prisoner in that mind of your own
it's you that's running nowhere to go
what do you see?
