

Talk To You

King's X

Early in the morning I hear my neighbors stereo
The telephone should start to ringing as usual
I listen to my answering machine, screening all my calls
Solicitor, wrong numbers and some I just don't know

I don't know what to say
But how are you today

I mailed your letter the other day but its got so far to go
Someone backed into my car, now it has a dent in the door
How I cant stand eating breakfast early in the morning
Now there's someone knocking at my door
Its a friend who's getting married I hope it lasts longer than the one before

I don't know what to say
But how are you today

I got the blues this morning oh tryin' to make it through
To live and to love you sometimes suffer
My neighbor called it payin' dues, oh yeah

Another day just a fading memory flashes across my eyes
Here and there happy said, oh Lord it's got to make it rhyme
Nothing much to tell you but there's so much on my mind
Guess I'll put this pencil down sincerely your friend I

I don't know what to say
But how are you today

I don't know what to say
So how are you today
