

Visions

King's X

The lunatic says
"Goodbye to those who say they love him"
He's wise within himself
As this craziness surrounds him

From his lips
Come truth within insanity
And people passing by
Don't hear and cannot see yeah

Cursing the darkness
Visions inside his head
Look like mine, oh just like mine

His words so true
Oh they're used against him
Oh his children smile
Because they know he loves them

Cursing the darkness
Visions inside his head
Look like mine, oh just like mine

Visions inside his head
Look like mine, oh just like mine

Look back on innocence in vain
Look ahead it's still the same old game

Cursing the darkness
Visions inside his head
Look like mine, oh just like mine

Visions inside his head
Look like mine, oh just like mine
