

Ruff Rhyme

King Tee

Yo, Pooh, man, what you build in there, man?
Ah, one of those hypso-change-o-calypto-beat-a-matics
There'll be another ruff rhyme
When I'm done there'll be another ruff rhyme

Another package from your slick Royal Highness
Pay attention, so you won't have to rewind this Put yourself together for another funky clip
I bring a lotta magic, but this ain't no trick

It's pure skill I possess in my possession
A crazy rhythm and my funky horn section
And Pooh hyped up this funky ol' track
So I thought about it, I'm comin' I'm back

When I'm done
I'm back when I'm done
King Tee is back again

Now let me talk to ya to the best of my ability
About the kid that's rockin' this facility
I bring to you peace and tranquility
Don't try to front, 'cause I know you feel it, see

My beats are masculine, I think that there hasn't been
A better groove to keep you like dancing, man
I feel thankful to feel there ain't no
Sucker tryin' to gank my spot, least I think so

But I don't sweat, 'cause I can stand on my two feet
Hold the mic and just curse the beat
I don't complain about the crowd I attract
Roll out the red carpet, I'm comin', I'm back

When I'm done there'll be another ruff rhyme
King Tee is back again
There'll be another ruff rhyme when I'm done
I'm back, King Tee is back again

Well, this might seem odd
You ask who taught me, well, it musta been God
'Cause ain't none of y'all cool like me
The impresario, majestic Tee

Some rappers are scared of me, they say when they dare to be Threatened, well, keep on steppin', I'll be prepared to be Jacked, Jack, cause your rhymes don't match
You got bold when I left, now I'm back

To stomp you, 'cause you stomp wrong, so I'ma stomp on Fool, you forgot, I'm from Compton
This is just a taste of my album, really nothin'
Just to show you I'm back, I'm comin'

When I'm done, there'll be another ruff rhyme
King Tee is back again, there'll be another ruff rhyme
When I'm done, there'll be another ruff rhyme

King Tee is back again, there'll be another ruff rhyme

Back again, back again, back again

There'll be another ruff rhyme

There'll be another ruff rhyme

When I'm done, there'll be another ruff rhyme

Ruff rhyme, ruff rhyme, ruff rhyme

When I'm done, there'll be another ruff rhyme
