Connecting Pain

Kingdom Come

Hey man, what have you done Hey man, another run Lost minds, try to forget Sad eyes, turning mad

Stealer - take all you can Healer - ain't your name my man

Cool man, connecting the pain Cool man, make your claim Hey man, it's all coming back Can't hide, by changing flags

Stealer - take all you can
Healer - ain't your name my man
Dealer - spreading the trap
Preacher- cannot save the dead

Go on keep avoiding the truth Soon you won't be amused Now you're feeling so tall That sure ain't your fault
