

Don't Want You To Wait

Kingdom Come

Cannot give you what you want
Sure enough, I tried

I have told you on and on
I made up my mind

It is far to late
I don't want you to wait
We don't share what it takes
Love would turn into hate

I don't feel it can't you see it
Love has made you blind

It's enough I cannot walk
Next to wishful eyes

It is far to late
I don't want you to wait
We don't share what it takes
Love would turn into hate

Don't feel betrayed - for your own sake
Illusions in gates - so hard to escape
