

Feeding The Flame

Kingdom Come

Another day is dawning
Another night, is calling my name
Another tear is falling
Another year, of grief and Champaign

Opened my heart
Right back to start
So many times
I cannot focus my
Mind is so vain
Pleasure and pain
Help me to cure what is feeding the flame

A lot of words been reaching
A lot of friends, coming and go
A lot of lips been touching
Gotta go, keep searching my road

Moments of love
Moments of peace
They never last
Can't come at ease I have
Been to the west
Been to the east
I am so tired of fighting the beast
