Hey Mama

Kingdom Come

Every Monday, I'm feeling the blues Every Tuesday, I try to get through Every Wednesday, I had too much booze Coming Thursday, I try to keep cool

Every Friday, the weekend in sight Every Saturday, I still don't feel right Coming Sunday, I'm asking why Can't the next day, leave me behind

Hey Mama, you gave me life Hey Mama, I wonder why They're saying, there's much more to life Besides working, and buying more time

There's much more to life Than buying more time
