

Shot Down

Kingdom Come

Here I am looking for answers
Driven hard with no thought of surrender
If I knew where I could find them
I could spare you the act of a madman

Shot down
Scared to fall
Where do I belong
Shot down
Can't recall
Where did I go wrong

Winds of war, holy disaster
If I could I would fight it with laughter
Breathing hard is what I've been doing
I just hope that no evil is brewing
