

Should Have Known

Kingdom Come

Sad songs, strange thoughts in my head
Can't laugh, can't cry, going mad
Don't know, which way to go
No one can help, I know

Endless questions, coming on
No direction, what is wrong
Loving, caring, I do
Still I'm feeling so blue

Should have known
I travel in danger zone
Scared to show
It's not only her, she knows

Hate to see you hurt inside
Help me fight it by my side
Sweet words, won't do no good

Had my fun
Now it's too late to run
I have lied
Knowing it ain't just right
