Should Have Known

Kingdom Come

Sad songs, strange thoughts in my head Can't laugh, can't cry, going mad Don't know, which way to go No one can help, I know

Endless questions, coming on No direction, what is wrong Loving, caring, I do Still I'm feeling so blue

Should have known I travel in danger zone Scared to show It's not only her, she knows

Hate to see you hurt inside Help me fight it by my side Sweet words, won't do no good

Had my fun Now it's too late to run I have lied Knowing it ain't just right
