Kingdom Come

Now, I have found that the girl I love can't take the downsides
I wish you'd talk it all out for me to understand it
You always say that the time is wrong to talk about it
I don't know how to go on If you don't drop your defenses

Stay
Can't keep running away
Just say what you are looking for
Stay
'Cause you know if you don't Heartache is what you are heading for

Now is the time, no one else is gonna to do the talking
If you just can't take a stand
You might be better off walking
