

Talked Too Much

Kingdom Come

I wonder who really cares!
What is happening everywhere
TV is bringing the news
More killing, more abuse

We've fought too
We've lied too
We've talked too much

I wonder who I can blame
I just can not call a name
No guilt is crossing
My mind
But sadness deep inside

We've fought too
We've lied too
We've talked too much

We've chosen to shoot us
And now we're the losers

We're fighting day after day
Taking orders and obey
Deep down we're feeling the same
Distrust and fear of pain

We've chosen to shoot us
And now we're the losers

We've fought too
We've lied too
We've talked too much

We've chosen to shoot us
And now we're the losers
