

The Trap Is Alive

Kingdom Come

This is not another love song, to carry on
Not about feeling sorry, those days are gone

Not about a bed of roses, that I've done
Cannot talk about the same things, on and on

There I was a hopeless dreamer, having fun
Used to be a strong believer, on the run

Looking back it makes me wonder, was it me
Shooting like a headless hunter, who couldn't see

Love comes in cute disguise
It wants you to crack and cry
Once it has caught your smile
The trap is alive

Settle down and do the right thing, I'm not sure
What it means it feels so frightening, there's no cure

When you lift the cheating cover, you may see
It could be so many others, to set you free

Love comes in cute disguise
It wants you to crack and cry
Once it has caught your smile
The trap is alive

Now it's to late to wonder
Why you denied all signs
Like drinking poisoned water
Run for your life