

Free The Fallen

Kingdom of Sorrow

I'm still living, searching and questioning
I'm still hoping, bleeding and wandering
Searching for something
To ease the agony
Questioning all this life
Lost in front of me
Trying not to let the hopelessness engulf me
Wishing for the realization to give me
Something
Someone
To help me feel again

How can we free the fallen?
How can we free the fallen?
Free them from themselves

I'm still living, searching and questioning
I'm still hoping, bleeding and wandering
I'm still living, searching and questioning
I'm still hoping for this world to give me
Something
Someone
To help me feel again
Something
Someone
To help me live again

How can we free the fallen?
How can we free the fallen?
Free them from themselves

Searching for something
To ease this agony
Questioning all this life
Lost in front of me
Trying not to let the hopelessness engulf me
Wishing for the realization to come to me

Resurrect me

I'm still searching for Something in this life
Anyone or anything
To give me peace inside
