

Seven Feet

Kingfisher Sky

Out of place, no one knows my name frightened of this cold reality I've seen your face in every corner of my world you will become my destiny

Your presence felt but never seen between the many and the few.
You may not know but I'm right here
seven feet behind you

All eyes on you people scream your name
I watch you silently from far Mindless sheep, not worthy of your time I'm the one who knows who you really are

Your presence felt but never seen
between the many and the few.
seven feet behind you

between the many and the few.
seven feet behind you

Out of place, at least you're with me now and I will never ever let you go

Your presence felt but never seen
between the many and the few.
You may not know but I'm right here
seven feet behind you
