Kingmaker

Stop breathing, it's time to stop breathing
Stop blinking, stop thinking, stop wasting time.
This is the message we deliver to each other
On a daily basis and it only makes us stronger.

I've said this time and time again
Spread the hate and spread the sin.

It's not fair that there's no one I spare,
It's not fair but i don't care.

This is for the world, all you boys and girls
Spread the heartbreak till the end.

Spread the heartbreak, till the end
Not a single person in this world's your friend
Spread the hate, spread the sin.
It is time for the ending to begin.

Imagine every single thing you've worked for gone never to return.

Stop breathing, it's time to stop breathing
Stop blinking, stop thinking, stop wasting time.
This is the message we deliver to each other
On a daily basis and it only makes us stronger
