

Love Tonight

Kingston Wall

Ooh, love tonight
Ooh, would feel so fine

I got to find someone to love tonight
You know, i've been lately feeling so, so tight
I cannot keep myself together,
I see this world behind a flustering haze
I got to find someone who to give this present
I been saving for all these days

Ooh, love tonight
Ooh, would sure unwind

The male in me is giving too much fuzz
It's taking me forwards with all this rush

I cannot keep myself together,
I see this world behind a flustering haze
I got to find someone who to give this present
I been saving for all these days
