Love Tonight

Kingston Wall

Ooh, love tonight Ooh, would feel so fine

I got to find someone to love tonight You know, i've been lately feeling so, so tight I cannot keep myself together, I see this world behind a flustering haze I got to find someone who to give this present I been saving for all these days

Ooh, love tonight Ooh, would sure unwind

The male in me is giving too much fuzz It's taking me forwards with all this rush

I cannot keep myself together,
I see this world behind a flustering haze
I got to find someone who to give this present
I been saving for all these days
