

Two Of A Kind

Kingston Wall

Hey, don't leave me here I can't stand it if you go

And I won't be surprised when I open my eyes
and I see what it's like to realize that we're
two of a kind

No, when will I see you when will you call, what will I do

And I won't be surprised
when I open my eyes
to realize that we're
two of a kind

The feelings I get when I look to the west are taking me away but I know it's something to see, it's something to feel

And I won't be surprised
when I open my eyes
to realize that we're
two of a kind
