

Heaven

Kira Isabella

I'm not ready to go
Not ready to say goodbye
The hands are turning too fast
Seconds are flying by

All I know is I'm alive
Lying by your side
And the cruel world is waiting

Hearts don't beat to be alone
Hold me close, don't you let me go
I'm right here, and you're right there
We can have a little bit of heaven

We can't stay forever young
But you can stay 'til the morning comes
Before the dawn, before the tears
We can have a little bit of heaven

Don't start searching for words
We know what tomorrow brings
I've been through all the hurt
And the emptiness when you leave

There's no once upon a time in this life
Just moments that collide
With the cruel world that's waiting

Hearts don't beat to be alone
Hold me close, don't you let me go
I'm right here, and you're right there
We can have a little bit of heaven

We can't stay forever young
But you can stay 'til the morning comes
Before the dawn, before the tears
We can have a little bit of heaven
A little bit of heaven here, ohhh
A little bit of heaven, heaven
A little bit of heaven, heaven

Now you're lying here beside me
In the silence between heartbeats
The world stands still, yea the world stands still

Hearts don't beat to be alone
Hold me close, don't you let me go
I'm right here, and you're right there
We can have a little bit of heaven

Ohhh ohhh
A little bit of heaven, heaven
A little bit of heaven, heaven

I'm not ready to go
Not ready to say goodbye
