

If I could I, I'd get away far from all this trouble I see everyday Nobody wants to show their face
This life is like a, like a masquerade
I know you love me
I know you care but while I'm hurting I just need to know your there Watching over me and I feel your telling me

Count it all joy and always remember, life will get better it's gonna get better
No matter the weapon it will not prosper, things will get better
it's gonna get better

Persecuted, pushed away, didn't think I'd live to see another day cried some tears and couldn't pray and when I'd try at times I couldn't find the words to say, but now I'm stronger, because of you without you Jesus I never could've made it through thank you for watching me loving me and telling me

Count it all joy and always remember, life will get better it's
gonna get better
No matter the weapon it will not prosper, things will get better
it's gonna get better

Life sometimes may change and nobody wants to feel pain, but it came to help you grow and there's one thing you need to know God's in love with you and he'll never let you go

Count it all joy and always remember, life will get better it's
gonna get better
No matter the weapon it will not prosper, things will get better
it's gonna get better

It's gonna get better
it's gonna get better
it's gonna get better
it's gonna get better
it's gonna get better
it's gonna get better
it's gonna get better
