

Still My Nigga

Kirko Bangz

Uh yea, remember when we first met I told you I wasn't shit
I told you to stay way I told you that you'll regret
But you say you see a different nigga then what they expect
So I showed you how I'm living now you loving me to death
I told you that I was wrong
But I helped you stay strong
Anytime you had a problem couldn't leave you on your own
I guess it's my fault never should've showed you different
When I came to your crib man I should've never kissed you
And not to have you thinking that a nigga losing interest
If a nigga didn't hit it first night, so I did it
You let a nigga hit it then the shit got different
And I'm tell you why just take my just listen
See, taken our time was the part that we was missin'
You was always on my mind even if I didn't hit ya
A little bit of distance got you trippin, now you bitchin
Now you in your dorm room talkin shit to your sister
She probably tellin you its fucked up how I did ya
Told you in the beginning but you never got the picture
But I know that I delivered it right to your door
But you ain't wanna open it cuz you ain't wanna know
Hidin from the truth talkin bout let it flow
And you know im in the streets babe you know im on the hoes
Shit, but you still hold a nigga close, baby girl still my nigga though
