Kirko Bangz

I know plenty of hoes in love with they niggas
But they be the same bitch thats fucking niggas
She blame it on you
Say you breaking her heart
So when she around us
She playin her part
Party time my nigga
She say its party time
Popping her pussy like a pill till its morning time
And you at home sending texts to the bitch
Talking shit bout to click and she telling us the shit we know
That you the type of nigga fall in love with pussy
We the type fall asleep don't even touch the pussy
I'm in the strip club throwing yesterdays money
You in the same club throwing other niggas money
So you tell me who's what
Who the real G
You tryna be a better me you gotta kill me
You running round acting like you got the crown
Man I'm tired of being modest
Tell these niggas bow down
You know that I'm the only reason they gave you a chance
Follow a nigga blueprint we gave you the plan
And if I got your main bitch taking pictures with me
Just know she coming to the room sipping liquor with me
And if she ain't sipping with me

She say you gotta hold it down if she giving it up
Yeah she look around and smile at everybody
And say I'm down but yall cant tell nobody
