

Ode to My Next Life

Kishi Bashi

Hail from the end of the [?]
Many have failed but I said I would be with you wherever you go
you made a [harrowing foe?]

This is the fantasy
That I dream

Sewn together in a simple life
Tending the garden [?]
Plowing my field [?]
I could never survive
Oh my second life wife

Mad in the energy
All the world on fire
With a dream

Skip to the end of a tragedy
Many have died and we cannot survive
Unless we cut off our life
And give them something to write

This is the remedy to begin the legend of our life

All my life

This is the melody of the sad desire
