

Statues in a Gallery

Kishi Bashi

One day, we may in love, safely
Like animals, we play
through the holiday

One day, we may be
Statues in a gallery
Oh, lover
You wanted me to give it to you

Everything you wanted
Everything you wanted

Did you think I could live forever
Without anyone to love again?
Here I am so let's turn it on and on and on

One song, in the rain
Listen and trust me
'Cause if you know the melody
We can sing along in a harmony

And every day, every song
Makes it all right even though it's gone
Oh, lover
Part of me, I gave it to you

One love, every one of us
One dream, we'll be a step away
One [?], from singing hallelujah
