

Stay The Day

Kiss Kiss

Sweat on the angels
Led to the fire
A beautiful place indeed
Cross in the wood that shed tears of liars
Magnificent time to lead
But stay the day
I want the sun
A close embrace
Draws two to none
But I feel it ending
In a bright starry gaze
It's all my fault
Gravity just stopped
And we all just floated away
It's all my fault
Gravity just stopped
