

Almost Human

Kiss

Ahh, ha

I'm almost human, can't help feelin' strange

The moon is out, I think I'm gonna change

You're so smooth and tender, a living, breathing dream

I've got to have you, baby, I'm listenin' for your scream

I'm almost human, I'm almost a man

I'm almost human, ooh

I'm almost human, baby please don't run away

'Cause wherever you run, I'll be a scream away

I'm very hungry and you're what I'm thinkin' of

Ooh baby, baby, baby, so hungry for your love

I'm almost human, oh, almost a man

I'm almost human, whoo

I'm very hungry and you're what I'm thinkin' of

Ooh baby, baby, baby, so hungry for your love

I'm almost human, I'm almost a man

I'm almost human, I'm almost human

I'm almost human, I'm almost human

I'm almost human, almost, almost, almost a man

I'm almost human

Almost, almost, almost, almost, almost, almost human

I'm almost human, I'm almost human

I'm almost human, almost a man

I'm almost human, almost, almost, almost

I'm almost human
