

Hate

Kiss

Hate, is what I am
'cause underneath this heart
There beats the heart of man

You'll wear your crown
When you're lyin' 6 feet underground
Don't you think it's odd
Man was created in the image of god

All you martyrs and saviours
Go through the same door
Listen all you butchers, saints and sinners
We've all been here before

Yes, hate is what I am
'cause underneath this heart
There beats the heart of man

So you're lookin' for a saviour
But I'm here to tell ya
You gotta save yourself
Like a lamb to slaughter
All you ever did was follow orders

All you martyrs and saviours
Go through the same door
Listen all you butchers, saints and sinners,
We've all been here before
All you martyrs and saviours
Go through the same door

Hey listen all you butchers, saints and sinners,
We've all been here before
Hate hate!

Yes, hate is what I am
Cause' underneath this heart
There beats the heart of man, man
Man!
