

Love's a Deadly Weapon

Kiss

Ooh give it to me
I'm gettin' fired up
Hot thunder's flowin' through my blood
My temperature's risin', baby
I want the warmth of your touch

So get a grip
I'm hot on your heels
You're burnin' up 'cause you know just how it's gonna feel, yeah
And you just can't help yourself now, baby
'Cause this time it's real, ow

Love's a deadly weapon
And murder's on my mind
Time you learned a lesson
Gonna love you this time

Like sugar to a baby, yeah
Got something you could use
Make you an offer, baby
You can't refuse

There you stand all dressed in red
I got this feelin' in me
Can't get you out of my head
One day you say you hate me
But I found you in my bed, yeah

Love's a deadly weapon
And murder's on my mind
I'm burnin' up with fever
I'm gonna love you this time
Yeah, yeah, I'm gonna love this time, yeah, yeah, yeah

Love's a deadly weapon
And murder's on my mind
I'm burnin' up with fever
I wanna love you, I wanna love you, yeah
One more time, ow
