

Assassins Of Love

Kissin' Dynamite

shadow and light playing games in my mind I just want you to please me come on hunt me down if you want me to stay it's like dead or alive

we are wasting away
we are burning alive
we both know it's a game that we play on the wings of the night between dark sheets we're feeling alive chorus:

Killing with love, we are assassins of pleasure Killing with love, we are assassins of lust a heart made of stone that cuts to the bone we are assassins of love we live on the edge between life and death Killing with love

see me explode
it's like pleasure and pain cause inside I am burning it's after dark and we're glowing like stars there ain't no place to hide
