

Kill The Light

Kitten

Maybe on a Sunday night
pop music in an acid light I remember when you sister died slow motion on a satellite I remember i was lying in my bedroom wishin' that love would come to me flash forward fantasy

we were listening to thunder road didn't even run out when hot went cold yeah there's allot of ways you could go i hear you singing on the radio you say you're leaving
but now I'm gonna find you
I'm gonna be suicide
don't kill the light

it's gonna hit you when the light goes out
they don't even know your name
and there's allot of kids hangin' out
but nobody can touch your fame

ra ra di rah ah ah oh,
ra di ra di rah oh oh,
oh!

so jenny don't kill the light i know i said i would but hey i lie I'm gonna meet you on the other side your boy said he wants you back tonight he only said I'm gonna love you till I'm crazy I'm gonna love you till I'm dead a place to lay my head to lay my head

certain love is not the same it's like she said
here come's the rain
if you wanna stay alive the preacher says you've got to die here's the scene
you give or take all the pretty girls in Silverlake the kind that make a girl forgot that there's nothing really to forget oh whoa, oh whoa, oh whoa,

oh woah,
yeah, yeah,
oh whoa, oh whoa, oh whoa,
oh woah,
yeah, yeah,
whoa,

whoa, whoa, oh!

I remember when your sister died
jenny don't kill the light
